To The Deputy Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Inam Department Bangalore

Sir,

I have the honor to report that one Soolekere Hanmi Bhatta, holder of a Ready-money Inam in the Kiptur Taluk, died on the 1st August 1900. His only son Kshetrapaliya now applies for the transfer of the Inam to his name and produces the Title-deed but not the Stipend Order, in the name of his father. On enquiry, Kshetrapaliya states before the Amildar that he had on hand from his deceased father that the stipend order was presented to the Inam Superintendent's office about 16 years ago and was, therefore, not with him. The Inam, however, is of a hereditary nature and is, as such, transferable to Kshetrapaliya's name.

2. I request, therefore, that the transfer of the Inam as requested may be ordered, and a new stipend order issued in the name of Kshetrapaliya.

3. The title deed in the name of the late deceased stipendiary together with the vernacular papers relating to the subject under
